CHICAGO, Illinois--This fall, Exxon and Mobil retailers and Citi are giving cardholders the opportunity to earn a dining certificate that can be used at thousands of restaurants and online merchants. Through November 30, 2010, ExxonMobil Personal Cardholders who register at dining.exxonmobilcard.com will earn a $50 dining certificate if they purchase 100 gallons of gasoline within 90 days of the date of registration. Offered by Restaurant.com, this certificate can be redeemed online at more than 15,000 restaurants and online merchants nationwide.

If customers don't have an ExxonMobil Personal Card, they can still take part by opening a new account at dining.exxonmobilcard.com or calling 1-866-379-1010. "This promotion is a great reminder for our cardholders that the ExxonMobil Personal Card is the smart way to pay for quality Exxon and Mobil branded gasoline," said Ben Soraci, U.S. Retail Sales Director, Exxon Mobil Corporation. "It already offers a great everyday value, with pay-at-the-pump convenience at 10,000 Exxon and Mobil stations, $0 fraud liability, and online account management tools. And from September through November, cardholders will have the added incentive of a certificate that makes going out to dinner a little more affordable."
